“Aeropostal Moves Caracas Flights To Orlando Sanford International Airport”

Sanford, Fla., June 5, 2001 – Orlando Sanford International Airport (SFB) will be the new home for Aeropostal’s nonstop service from Caracas, Venezuela. Aeropostal has served Orlando since 1998, but will relocate to Orlando Sanford on Thursday, July 12, 2001. This service will be Orlando Sanford’s first scheduled service to Latin America. Aeropostal is Venezuela’s largest carrier to the United States with service to Miami and Orlando.

Aeropostal will use 140-seat Boeing 727-200 aircraft in a first class and coach configuration to provide service 2-days per week on Thursday and Sunday. Flights depart Caracas at 7:00 AM and arrive at Orlando Sanford at 10:30 AM. Flights from Orlando Sanford to Caracas depart 11:30 AM and arrive in Caracas at 3:00 PM. Connections to other destinations in Central and South America are available on Aeropostal through its hub in Caracas. Florida residents wishing to book flights on Aeropostal to Caracas or points south, may do so by; contacting the airline at www.aeropostal.com or at (888) 912-9466, or by contacting any local travel agent.

“Orlando Sanford is perfect for our passengers, it allows them to get from our aircraft to their rental car in the least amount of time possible. We are especially impressed with the new terminal and its convenience to our passengers. We look forward to expanding service and participating in the airport’s rapid growth,” commented Haydhelen Velázquez Ramiz, President of Aeropostal.

Larry Gouldthorpe, President of TBI Airport Management Inc. remarked, “One of our goals is to expand the number and diversity of destinations served from Orlando Sanford, this provides greater options for visitors trying to get to Central Florida and also better serves our local traffic base. We want to extend a warm welcome to Aeropostal and recognize the importance of this first scheduled international service at the airport.”

Orlando Sanford International Airport is ranked among the 16 busiest airports in the nation based on international passenger traffic, and is a convenient gateway to/from Central Florida. Located near the Orlando attractions, the Airport is also very convenient to Daytona Beach. Adjacent to the Airport are the business communities of Lake Mary and Heathrow, part of Florida’s “High Tech Corridor.” Airlines and their passengers enjoy free parking, a congestion-free environment, short walking distances, and low operating costs.

For more information, visit the airport’s website at www.orlandosanfordairport.com or their terminal management company, TBI Airport Management, Inc. at www.osi-airport.com.
