Canadian Airline Jetsgo Ceases Operations
Airline Operated from Orlando Sanford since October 2003

Sanford, FL, March 11, 2005 – It is with disappointment that Orlando Sanford International Airport confirms Canadian Airline, Jetsgo has decided to stop operating commercial flights as of March 11, 2005. Jetsgo began service between Orlando Sanford and Toronto and Montreal in October 2003. Jetsgo's flights out of Fort Lauderdale, Fort Myers, and St. Petersburg have also been canceled.

Passengers are encouraged to make alternative arrangements for travel. While no official policies are currently in place with other Canadian airlines; Air Canada (1-888-247-2262) and WestJet (1-888-937-8538) have stated that they will do their best to accommodate Jetsgo passengers whose travel plans were disrupted as a result of Jetsgo's cessation of service. Other Canadian airlines offering service to Canada are Air Transat (1-877-872-6728), CanJet (1-800-809-7777), and Zoom (1-866-359-9666). All of these carriers fly out of Orlando International Airport.
