WE LOVE NEW YORK: Now you can too...
Pan Am starts daily Orlando Sanford - Newark flights

Sanford, FL, June 28, 2002 - Orlando Sanford International Airport (SFB) announces today the start of daily non-stop service to New York's Newark International Airport (EWR) on Pan American Airways. Flights depart Orlando Sanford for Newark at 11:30 a.m. and return back to Orlando Sanford from Newark at 5:25 p.m.

All scheduled service will use Pan Am's 149-seat Boeing 727-200 reconfigured Clipper Class aircraft, affording both leisure and business travelers the luxury of the most leg room in coach between Central Florida and New York. Reservations can be made on-line at www.flypanam.com, by phone at 1-800-FlyPanAm, or by contacting any local travel agent.

For the second year in a row, the Airports Council International (ACI) ranked SFB as the fastest growing North American airport in 2001, among airports with one million or more annual passengers. Orlando Sanford International Airport is located near the Orlando attractions and is also convenient to Daytona Beach. Adjacent to the airport are the business communities of Lake Mary and Heathrow, part of Florida's "High Tech Corridor." Airlines and their passengers enjoy convenient parking, new terminal facilities, short walking distances, and low operating costs.
