TransMeridian Starts Flights Between Orlando Sanford and Harrisburg, PA

Sanford, FL, February 26, 2004 – Orlando Sanford International Airport (SFB) announced today the start of non-stop service to Harrisburg, PA (MDT) on TransMeridian Airlines. This service marks the 7th destination TMA has begun since starting flights at Orlando Sanford in June 2003. Flights will operate every Monday and Thursday, using a 170-seat Boeing 727-200 aircraft. Additional flights on Friday and Saturday are also planned. After April 16, 2004, flights will operate Monday, Thursday, and Saturday. Flights depart Orlando Sanford at 11:15 AM and arrive in Harrisburg at 1:30 PM. Service from Harrisburg to Orlando Sanford departs at 3:05 PM and arrives at 5:20 PM.

Airfares for travel through September 7, 2004, start at just $79* one way and can be purchased at www.IFlyTMA.com where passengers receive a five-percent discount. Tickets can also be bought by calling 1-866-I FLY-TMA or contacting a professional travel agent. TransMeridian Airlines does not require an advance purchase or a Saturday night stay to obtain the low airfare.

Rob Binns, President of TransMeridian Airlines, remarked, “We firmly believe that as more people learn about our everyday low airfares, high-end service and added amenities, our flights will be consistently sold out.”
