Orlando Sanford Announces Scheduled Nonstop Service to Scotland
Travel to Glasgow on flyglobespan from $175 including all taxes

Sanford, FL, May 10, 2006 – Orlando Sanford International Airport (SFB) and Scottish airline, flyglobespan announced today scheduled, nonstop, low-fare service beginning June 2, 2006 to Glasgow International Airport (GLA) in Glasgow, Scotland.

Orlando Sanford has welcomed United Kingdom guests for the past 10 years; this upcoming service by flyglobespan now allows members of the local community to travel nonstop to the United Kingdom from the airport for the first time – at very attractive fares.

Service will operate daily using a 244-seat Boeing 767-300 aircraft configured with 24 Business-Class, 60 Premium-Economy and 160 No Frills seats. Flyglobespan, which has quickly become a major force in the UK airline sector through its low fares, web-based sales program have a three-tiered pricing policy to match the different cabins. No Frills class will start from $175 including all taxes; Premium-Economy will start at $339 dollars including all taxes with Business seats available from $599 including all taxes. Prices INCLUDE $2.50 September 11th Security Fee and all other taxes, fees and surcharges.

In addition to these rock bottom passenger fares, the flights will offer very attractive cargo opportunities – with the aircraft able to take up to 33,000 pounds of cargo over four full and two half pallets. This first-ever direct link between Florida and Scotland will gain exporters 24 hours from the traditional route of flying into London or Manchester then trucking up to Scotland.

FlyGlobespan have appointed Kestrel Aircargo based in the UK as their worldwide cargo general sales agent. In the USA, Platinum Air Cargo is working in partnership with Kestrel to promote the benefits of the Florida –Scotland flights. Platinum Air Cargo USA can be contacted on Tel: (281)-869-8021.

Flights will depart Orlando Sanford at 6:30 p.m. and arrive in Glasgow at 7:30 a.m. the next day. Return service is scheduled to leave Glasgow at 9:30 a.m. and arrive at Orlando Sanford at 1:30 p.m. (flight times are local). Reservations can be made on the airline's website at www.flyglobespan.com.

Larry Dale, President of the Sanford Airport Authority, commented, "Bringing flyglobespan to the airport is extremely significant for us and the community. We've seen great success from our UK airline business and are excited to provide the local community with another opportunity to affordably travel to Europe from Orlando Sanford."

Larry Gouldthorpe, President of TBI US Operations at Orlando Sanford added, “We have been working with flyglobespan for nearly 2 years to make this day happen. We are also pleased to also announce that we have executed an agreement with flyglobespan to make Orlando Sanford their gateway to Central Florida for the next seven years.”

Flyglobespan is a wholly owned subsidiary of The Globespan Group Plc established in 1974. The Globespan Group has been flying Scots across the Atlantic to Canada for over 30 years. Web-based airline, flyglobespan commenced its first flight in April 2002 and now operates 10 aircraft within Europe. It was voted Airline of the Year last year by the British Airports Authority (Scotland)

US visitors using Orlando Sanford to travel with flyglobespan to Glasgow will find the Scottish city an equally ideal destination – catering to every tourist requirement. Glasgow is not only the gateway to the many delights of Scotland – there is stunning scenery and championships golf courses within an hour’s drive. It is also the perfect starting off point for a more extensive tour of Europe with onward links to all major UK destinations and many of Europe’s most popular cities.

“It will be our pleasure to welcome Florida residents aboard our new service,” says flyglobespan chairman Tom Dalrymple. “We look forward to introducing them to the special standards of customer care that is the flyglobespan hallmark and also bringing them to the delights of Scotland. “This is a beautiful country with strong links to America. I am very hopeful that these super value fares will tempt many people to come over here and see for themselves. “We look forward to a long and successful relationship with Orlando Sanford International.”

Airports Council International (ACI) ranked SFB as the fastest growing North American airport for the year 2004. Orlando Sanford International Airport offers visitors and Central Floridians alike, the “Best of Both Worlds,” located midway between Orlando’s World Class attractions and the World’s Most Famous Beach - Daytona Beach, both are only 45 minutes away. Airlines and their passengers enjoy a stress-free environment, convenient parking, new terminal facilities, short walking distances, and attractive pricing.
