Holiday Parking at Orlando Sanford Approaching Record Levels Special Holiday Parking Lot Now Open to Handle Demand

Sanford, FL, December 20, 2006 – Orlando Sanford International Airport (SFB) announces the opening of an overflow Holiday Parking Lot to accommodate what is sure to be record breaking parking levels this holiday season. The Holiday Parking Lot is located at the intersection of Airport Boulevard and Red Cleveland Boulevard. The airport will provide Free Shuttle Service to/from the terminal complex. There is a $25 flat rate paid upon entry of the lot for lengths of stay of 1-7 days duration OR a $35 flat rate paid upon entry for lengths of stay of 8 or more days; Mastercard and Visa are accepted. The Holiday Parking Lot will remain open through January 15, 2007. Passengers are asked to make the attendant aware of a need to park longer than January 15 as transportation from the terminal complex to the Holiday Parking Lot will not be available beyond this date.

The airport is seeing record traffic and parking levels this holiday season as more and more locals take advantage of the growing list of destinations available from Orlando Sanford. In 2006, locals for the first time were able to fly to Europe from Orlando Sanford with flights operated by Icelandair and flyglobespan. Allegiant Air continues to expand its operation here with flights to 22 domestic destinations from Orlando Sanford.
