Icelandair To Move Its Scheduled Service To Orlando Sanford Locals Can Now Travel Nonstop to Iceland and other European Cities from SFB

Sanford, FL, November 10, 2005 – Orlando Sanford International Airport (SFB) and Icelandair announced today that scheduled, nonstop service to Keflavik International Airport (KEF) near Reykjavik, Iceland will begin March 27, 2006. With nonstop service to Reykjavik, passengers can continue on to over a dozen other major European cities. This upcoming service by Icelandair now allows members of the local community to travel to Europe from Orlando Sanford for the very first time. Icelandair is one of Europe's most progressive and dynamic airlines with over 65 years of aviation experience.

Departures will operate three days per week using a 189-seat Boeing 757-200 aircraft configured with 22 Saga Class and 167 Economy Class seats. Flights will depart Orlando Sanford at 6:00 p.m. and arrive in Reykjavik at 6:10 a.m. the next day on Tuesday, Wednesday and Saturday. Return service is scheduled to leave Reykjavik at 5:10 p.m. and arrive at Orlando Sanford at 7:55 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday and Friday. All flight times are local. Reservations can be made on the airline's website at www.Icelandair.com, by calling Icelandair at 800-223-5500, or through a local travel professional.

Larry Dale, President of the Sanford Airport Authority, commented, "For years, our number one request from the traveling public has been for service to Europe from Orlando Sanford. With the advent of Icelandair, we are delighted to be able to offer local residents this long-awaited and exciting opportunity."

Larry Gouldthorpe, President of TBI US Operations at Orlando Sanford added, "Bringing Icelandair to the airport is extremely significant for us and the local community. We have been working hard to attract scheduled service to Europe for some time now, and we anticipate more to come. We are pleased to also announce that we have executed an agreement with Icelandair to make Orlando Sanford their gateway to Central Florida for the next seven years."

Airports Council International (ACI) ranked SFB as the fastest growing North American airport for the year 2004. Orlando Sanford International Airport offers visitors and Central Floridians alike, the "Best of Both Worlds," located midway between Orlando's World Class attractions and the World's Most Famous Beach - Daytona Beach, both are only 45 minutes away. Airlines and their passengers enjoy a stress-free environment, convenient parking, new terminal facilities, short walking distances, and attractive pricing.
